THE DUCK FEST

RED CROSS WORKERS ARE ENTERTAINED BY MR. AND MRS. BRALY

When a number of the men and women of Glendale met in the auditorium of the High School last spring and organized a branch of the American Red Cross, John Hyde Braly was elected chairman of the organization. Mr. Braly being well aware that the work of this newly formed organization could not be carried on successfully without frequent meetings of the officers and chairmen of the various committees, very wisely planned weekly meetings, and in a spirit of neighborly kindness designated his home at 205 North Brand boulevard as a meeting place.

The usual time for these meetings was Monday evenings, and so cordial was the greeting always extended by Mr. and Mrs. Braly that it became a pleasure for those closely connected with Red Cross work to be in attendance. A step across the Braly threshold was accompanied by a firm hand clasp, a cordial smile and an assurance that "we could not get along without you this evening."

A circle was formed around the table, on which a large pitcher full of ice water had been placed, and there Chairman Braly in an informal but very business-like manner listened to the reports of the heads of the dozen or more committees and made suggestions and spoke words of encouragement to the volunteer workers.

First organized as a branch of the Los Angeles Chapter of the American Red Cross, and later becoming an independent chapter, the local organization continued to increase in membership, and weekly meetings continued to be held at the Braly home.

About ten days ago a special meeting was called and to the happy surprise of all present Mrs. Braly announced that Mr. Braly for several months had been fattening a half dozen young ducks for the purpose of having a real old-fashioned duckfest at which the committee chairmen of the Red Cross would be the guests of honor.

After consulting the conveniences of the proposed guests, September 6 was selected as the time for the duckfest and story-telling hour. The appointed hour, 6:30, came none too soon, and as at former meetings of the Red Cross workers, Mr. Braly was on the alert to greet his guests and assure them that the ducks were roasted to a nicety, and as an appetizer, on request of Mr. Braly, the ducks, just newly taken from the oven, were brought into the presence of the guests and then returned to the hands of the skilful carver.

The appetizer provoked a keen hunger and soon nineteen men and women were seated at a beautifully decorated table. They were Chairman J. H. Braly and Mrs. Braly, Vice-Chairman Rev. T. F. McCrea and Mrs. McCrea, Mrs. Mabel Franklin Ocker, Secretary, F. H. Vesper, Treasurer, Dr. R. E. Chase, instructor of nurses in first aid classes, and Mrs. Chase, Chairman of Membership Committee, Dr. Henry R. Harrower, Chairman of Entertainment Committee, Mrs. A. S. Chase, Chairman of Packing and Shipping Committee, Mrs. E. M. Tuft, Chairman of Surgical Supplies; Mrs. Geo. D. Carter, Chairman of Knitting Committee, Mrs. C. E. Hutchinson, Chairman Committee Nurses Training Classes, Miss Maybelle Douglas, ambulance pillows, Mrs. H. S. Duffield, Chairman Tin Foil Committee, Dr. C. Irving Mills and A. T. Cowan, directors, Mrs. Kirk of Santa Barbara, daughter of Mrs. Braly.

The divine blessing was pronounced by Dr. C. Irving Mills. As the waiters brought to the table the different courses of meats, vegetables and fruits, Mrs. Braly took great pride in announcing that "This corn, these tomatoes, these plums, yes, and these ducks are products of the Braly garden and poultry yard." So tender and delicious was the roasted duck that almost all present were pleased to accept a second helping.

After an hour had been spent in satisfying the wants of the inner man, which time was devoted to the discussion of the current world happenings, Mrs. Braly introduced Mrs. C. E. Hutchinson as toastmistress of the evening. This lady proved herself an adept in carefully wording witty introductory remarks. Dr. Henry R. Harrower responded to the toast, Fine Tooth Combing for Nickels. As chairman of the entertainment committee, the speaker's experience in adding nickels, dimes and quarters to the Red Cross fund was without limitation. He therefore was in a position to talk very understandingly upon this subject.

Rev. T. F. McCrea responded to

DINNER PARTY

Dr. and Mrs. Colin Cable were the hosts at a most delightful dinner given at their home, 755 South Columbus avenue on Friday evening in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Holmes, Miss Mertis and Miss Lois Holmes, of New Orleans.

Mr. Holmes, who is a cotton broker, has large interests in the Imperial Valley and will visit that region and inspect the cotton before his departure for home. Mr Holmes and family have been in Los Angeles for two months and are old friends of Dr. and Mrs. Cable.

An artistic arrangement of gaillardias and bird of paradise was the unique decoration of the dinner table and was most attractive.

The evening was spent in music and conversation. Mrs. Le Roy Bosserman, who has recently returned from the East, favored the guests with delightful music. The guests entertained by Dr. and Mrs. Cable on this happy occasion were Mr. and Mrs. Louis Holmes, Miss Mertis Holmes, Miss Lois Holmes, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Charlton, Mrs. Fanny Charlton and Mrs. Le Roy W. Bosserman.

BILLY SUNDAY PARTY

A big part of the Sunday campaign will be brought to Glendale for four successive Wednesday evenings, beginning next Wednesday, September 12th.

The Glendale meetings will be held at the First M. E. church every Wednesday evening at 7:45. The meeting is for everybody.

Many opportunities to hear Billy Sunday, but only four chances to hear Miss Saxe here in our city.

Pastors and all church workers are requested to extend this notice.

Hollywood, Pasadena and Santa Monica are other cities following this plan which has been so successful in the great eastern cities.

After a long illness, Mrs. Sophia Andross died early Saturday morning at the residence of her husband, Rev. E. E. Andross, 1409 Hawthorne street, Glendale, Cal.

U. S. MAY BREAK WITH SWEDEN

OBJECTS TO STOCKHOLM AS CLEARING HOUSE FOR MESSAGES BETWEEN BUENOS AIRES AND BERLIN

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

WASHINGTON, September 8.—The United States government is likely to break relations with Sweden as a result of that country acting as a medium for the transfer of German messages from the German Charge at Buenos Aires via Stockholm to Berlin. Argentina is inflamed at such a plot and will likely get directly into the war at once.

RACE ABOVE THE CLOUDS

SECOND ANNUAL HILL-CLIMBING CLASSIC TO SUMMIT OF PIKE'S PEAK IS STAGED TO-DAY

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

COLORADO SPRINGS, Colo., September 8.—The second annual hill-climbing classic for stock motor cars to the summit of Pike's Peak is being staged to-day. Dozens of the best-known American motors are competing for honors in the "race above the clouds." Improvement of the highway to the summit of the peak is expected to result in lowering of the time for the climb.

DISTILLERIES CLOSE TO-NIGHT

FOOD CONTROL LAW PROHIBITING USE OF FOODSTUFFS IN MANUFACTURE OF DISTILLED SPIRITS IN EFFECT

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

WASHINGTON, September 8.—American distilleries ordered to close to save grain must cease fermentation at 11 o'clock to-night. But whiskey drinking does not end to-night. There were 232,404,870 gallons of it stored in warehouses at the last report, not to mention supplies in saloons, wholesale liquor stores and with licensed liquor dealers. While the food control law is effective only for the duration of the war, prohibitionists declare whiskey making never will be known again in this country. They are confident that with the experience gained from the present war experiment, nation-wide prohibition will soon be adopted by federal constitutional amendment. What will happen to whiskey distilleries is problematical. Some have already announced they will go out of business. Others plan to continue making alcohol for industrial purposes. Many may enter other lines—even making malted milk. The law prohibits the making of distilled spirits for beverage purposes. Straight alcohol and denatured alcohol may continue to be manufactured. There are about 700 plants equipped for making alcohol in this country. Only about 600, however, actually have been making whiskey.

Hoover's order stops all processes in the production of whiskey at 11 p. m. "The use of foods, fruits and food materials or feeds may not even be initiated unless the entire process may be fully completed prior to 11 p. m.," his order stated. Two other "dry" provisions in the food bill have not yet been acted upon by Hoover. One gives the president the right to commandeer any or all distilled spirits if necessary for redistillation and use in munitions making or other military purposes. The other empowers the president to limit, regulate or prohibit the use of foodstuffs to make beer.

AID RED CROSS

RIVERDALE DRIVE CHILDREN SHOW PATRIOTISM IN PRACTICAL WAY

The Red Cross benefit given by the children of Riverdale drive on Friday evening at the home of Mrs. A. S. Chase was a success far beyond the expectation of those who so generously gave their time and talents to the preparation of the benefit.

The attendance was fine, the spacious home being crowded by friends and neighbors who came to enjoy the splendid program given by these young patriots. The following numbers were given in a most pleasing manner:

1. Piano Duet.....Welcome March Tamson Johnson and Cecil Chase
2. Word of Welcome Ordean Chase
3. Dance .....Dawn Reba Hodge
4. Reading Agnes Thaxter
5. Song Erma Lucas
6. Dutch Dance Cecil Chase
7. Reading Doris Packer
8. Recitations Richard Farlander, Obed Lucas
9. Flag drill.....12 children
10. Recitation Alexander Chase
11. Piano Solo Tamson Johnson
12. Dance Marie Hearnshaw

The last number of the program was very beautiful. Miss Doris Packer as Miss Columbia made a beautiful picture, arousing in all a thrill of patriotism.

Especial mention should be made of the generosity of Mr. and Mrs. Chase in opening their home and doing so much to make it a success.

As the ice cream and cake sold were the home product of the mothers in the neighborhood, there was not a single cent of expense, and the large sum of $21 was realized.

The suggestion has been made that what has been accomplished in this neighborhood can be successfully done in other neighborhoods and the Red Cross funds be materially increased.

GLENDALE AT SUNDAY MEETING

Glendale was well represented in the Sunday meetings on Friday evening, when two hundred or more of the young people of the various churches went in a body and occupied the seats reserved for them in the great tabernacle.

James W. Cooper, chairman of the Lookout Committee, C. E. of the First Presbyterian Church, was in charge, assisted by members from the other churches in Glendale.

Between forty and fifty automobiles were used to transport the young people to the city and this was not nearly enough, and about twenty-five or more were obliged to wait for a car, making them too late to secure places in the reserved seats. In all there were probably 250 Glendale young people present.

The reserved section was well up in front and Glendale made quite a showing, Mr. Sunday himself recognizing them, and a special musical number was given for them.

OLD SETTLERS PICNIC

For the past ten years the Old Settlers Association has been holding an annual picnic on the third Saturday in September, and the event will occur next week at Echo Park.

These picnics are always enjoyable affairs owing to the spirit of sociability and general good fellowship and lack of formality. The officers and members of the association are anxious that the name of the organization should not seem to bar any one from attendance, on the contrary new comers to the valley are heartily welcomed. It is only expected that the old settlers will feel particularly called on to be present. Coffee will be furnished free to all comers. The other refreshment will be taken in baskets or other containers. Time of assembly, eleven to twelve o'clock. Mr. J. C. Sherer is president and Mr. N. C. Burch secretary of the association.

BIG PUMP INSTALLED

3000 ADDITIONAL GALLONS OF WATER PER MINUTE AVAILABLE FOR USE

Within a few hours the city's new pumping plant, located on San Fernando Road and Grand View avenue, will be in operation. This means that every minute an additional 3000 gals. of pure well water will be available for use in Glendale and surrounding territory.

To fully appreciate this we must consider the value and importance of an adequate supply of good water. Plenty of water at a low rate has always been a prime factor in the upbuilding of any community. Almost the first questions asked by newcomers are: Have you plenty of water? What are the rates? Especially at this time, with the war gardens here to stay and intensive cultivation so necessary and desirable, this announcement comes as welcome news.

The unit consists of two wells and pumps, settling basin, and large booster pump. Each is housed in neat individual buildings properly arranged for efficient work. The entire unit is surrounded by a 3-ft. cement coping and when completed will present a very practical and pleasing appearance.

The wells are 16-inch casing and are 500 feet in depth. When finished a severe test was made without appreciably lowering the water level. The water at present stands about 20 feet from the top, but will be pumped from a depth of about 60 feet.

Each well is equipped with a Layne & Bowler, deep-well turbine pump, driven by a 35 horse power General Electric motor of the vertical type, operating on 2200 volt current at a speed of about 1500 revolutions per minute.

These pumps lift the water out of the well and deliver it through a 10-inch discharge pipe into the settling basin. Each pump will handle 1500 gals. per minute. The water flows over separate weirs into the settling basin so that the exact output of each well can be accurately measured.

The settling basin is constructed of heavily reinforced concrete, entirely roofed over and has a capacity of 50,000 gals. All sand or gravel is allowed to settle while the water flows through this basin, thus preventing any from being pumped into the system. An 8-inch overflow pipe is connected so as to carry any excess water back into one of the wells.

The water is drawn from the settling basin and pumped into the system by a powerful double suction booster pump, driven by a 350 horse power motor. The pump was built by the A. S. Cameron Steam Pump Co. of New York, and is a model of compactness and thoroughly adapted to this class of work.

Perhaps the most important part of

THE COMMUNITY CONCERT

In Thursday's Glendale Evening News are the words of two community songs to be sung by choir and audience this evening at the open-air concert, corner of Broadway and Louise. Would it not be a good plan to clip these songs and bring them with you to the concert so you can sing the words, unless you have already memorized them?

The piano used at the first concert last Saturday will be loaned again this evening by the Glendale Music Co. and it will be taken to the city band stand by the Robinson Transfer Co., with no charge for rental or transportation.

Everybody seems willing to lend a hand to make Glendale's community singing a success. It is understood that at this evening's concert City Manager Watson will tell some interesting things about community singing, already a great fad in the East.

DR. WILLISFORD VISITS THE GRAND CANYON OF ARIZONA

Dr. E. H. Willisford has just returned from a few days trip in Arizona. A day was spent in Phoenix and he spent Sunday at Prescott, where he preached in the Congregational church. This city is over a mile high and is most picturesquely located. From here the Doctor went to the Grand Canyon of the Colorado. He descended the canyon to the Colorado river. To do this it is necessary to walk fourteen miles. There is a fall of over a mile from the rim of the canyon to the river.

The trail is very steep, in places being cut out of almost perpendicular rocks. The colorings of the rocks are most varied and highly colored. It requires big words to adequately describe the magnitude, the beauty and the grandeur of this wonderful natural attraction.

COMMENTS UPON BILLY SUNDAY

What a country newspaper man may say about Billy Sunday will not make or unmake him in the eyes of the world. Billy Sunday's measure has long since been taken,—he has been classified and the world has its opinions as to Mr. Sunday's merits. Sunday is in a class by himself as an evangelist. He has proven to the people in the twenty years he has appeared before them that he is wonderfully in earnest and that he has accomplished a great amount of good in the world .

Sunday possesses business tact and he knows what pleases the people, and that fact accounts for the reason of his using sensational and coarse language. By the use of such language he has found that he can draw people within the hearing of his voice who otherwise would never come near him .

The editor of the Evening News feels sure that the Christian men and women who are so earnestly supporting Mr. Sunday do not approve of the slang he uses. They would not use it themselves and they would much prefer to listen to a sermon that contains the same essence of truth as preached by Mr. Sunday, but minus the slang.

However, should Billy Sunday begin next week to drop all sensationalism from his sermons, his audiences would begin to dwindle down, and it would soon be impossible for him to get the very persons whom he desires to hear him to come to his meetings.

Sunday's is a case of doing wrong that great good may come out of it. It is absolutely wrong to use such coarse language when preaching the gospel of Jesus Christ, but if that sensational and coarse language must be used to get the attention of people who are groveling in the the depth of sin, the question of how may the greatest good be accomplished presents itself.

WHO IS "GEORGE"?

No, it is not George Washington, nor any of the crowned kings of that familiar front monicker. But George is a royal good fellow all the same. Were it not for "George" the City of Glendale would quit business and soon be sliding down into innocuous desuetude.

Though "George" is the most put-upon individual in the whole community, he sticks to his job, saws wood and says little or nothing. He is a do-er from Do-ville.

But who is this important personage? Well, he is the real worker in all good works requiring personal sacrifice, physical or financial, without whose loyal efficiency little would ever be accomplished. "George" is both male and female—the one ubiquitous, indispensable person in the community of whom every selfish slacker in any or all lines of duty says, in effect if not in words: "Let George do it."

SECOND FRENCH CLASS BEGINS

Monday evening the first meeting of the French class will be held at 7:30 at 1222 Milford street. This is a class of men and women, and promises to be a most enjoyable way of studying French under pleasant conditions. A small text book, costing only 60 cents, will be used. Fee will be $2.50 for ten lessons, to be paid in advance; all money received will be devoted to Red Cross headquarters at Washington. Simple French songs will be taught, and modern French war posters, patriotic speeches, etc., will be used as exercises in reading, pronunciation, etc. Phone Sunset Glendale 394.

WEDNESDAY PRAYERMEETING HOUR

The congregations belonging to our Church Federation of Glendale will not observe the Wednesday evening prayermeeting hour in their respective churches beginning with September 12th for 4 weeks. Instead, there will be a combined service of all said churches in the Methodist church under the leadership of Miss Grace Saxe, Bible teacher of the Sunday Party.

LESSON IN AGRICULTURE

"I hear you are thinking of buying a farm."

"That's my intention," said the city man, with a complacent air.

"Well, don't forget the importance of silos."

"Trust me for that, sir. By the way—er—do those things consume much gasoline?"—Birmingham Age-Herald.

THE ORIGIN OF ROCK-A-BY BABY

The following facts in regard to the old lullaby, "Rock-a-by Baby," were taken from the archives of the historical society, Boston.

Soon after our forefathers landed in Plymouth some people went out into a field where Indian women were picking strawberries and observed several cradles hung upon the boughs of trees, with the babies fastened upon them, a novel and curious sight to any European. A gentle breeze sprang up and waved the cradles to and fro. A young man, one of the party, peeled off a piece of bark and wrote the following, which has been repeated thousands of times by thousands of American mothers, very few of whom ever knew or cared for its origin:

Lul-a-by baby upon the tree top,
When the wind blows the cradle will rock;
When the bough breaks, the cradle will fall,
And down will come baby, cradle and all.

I LOVE YOU, CALIFORNIA

Words by F. B. Silverwood
Music by A. A. Frankenstein

I love you, California,
You're the greatest state of all;
I love you in the winter,
Summer, spring, and in the fall.
I love your fertile valleys;
Your dear mountains I adore.
I love your grand old ocean
And I love her rugged shore.

Chorus

Where the snow crowned golden Sierras
Keep their watch o'er the valleys bloom,
It is there I would be in the land by the sea,
Every breeze bearing rich perfume.
It is here nature gives of her rarest,
It is Home, Sweet Home to me,
And I know when I die I shall breathe my last sigh
For my sunny California.

I love your redwood forests—
Love your fields of yellow grain.
I love your summer breezes
And I love your winter rain.
I love you, land of flowers,
Land of honey, fruit and wine.
I love you, California,
You have won this heart of mine.

I love your old gray missions—
Love your vineyards stretching far.
I love you, California,
With your Goiden Gate ajar.
I love your purple sunsets,
Love your skies of azure blue.
I love you, California,
I just can't help loving you.

I love you, Catalina,
You are very dear to me.
I love you, Tamalpais,
And I love Yosemite.
I love you, Land of Sunshine,
Half your beauties are untold;
I loved you in my childhood
And I'll love you when I'm old.

HYMN TO AMERICA

O beautiful for spacious skies,
For amber waves of grain,
For purple mountain majesties
Above the fruited plain!
America! America!
God shed His grace on thee
And crown thy good with brotherhood
From sea to shining sea!

O beautiful for pilgrim feet
Whose stern, impassioned stress
A thoroughfare for freedom beat
Across the wilderness!
America! America!
God mend thine ev'ry flaw,
Confirm thy soul in self-control,
Thy liberty in law!

O beautiful for heroes proved
In liberating strife,
Who more than self their country lov'd,
And mercy more than life!
America! America!
May God thy gold refine,
Till all success be nobleness,
And ev'ry gain divine!
O beautiful for patriot dream
That sees beyond the years
Thine alabaster cities gleam
Undimmed by human tears!
America! America!
God shed His grace on thee
And crown thy good with brotherhood
From sea to shining sea!

—Katherine Lee Bates.

PAID IN HIS OWN COIN

In the days of the country inn and when traveling overland was done on horseback or in carriages the eccentric John Randolph of Roanoke was passing over a road that was new to him. He stopped at an inn for dinner. The meal being over, the driver hitched in his team and was ready to resume the journey when the innkeeper, doubtless with the best intentions, inquired of Randolph where he was going.

"I've paid my bill, and it's none of your business," gruffly answered the traveler.

About half a mile from the inn Randolph found that the road forked. He of course did not know which end to take, so he sent the driver back to inquire of the innkeeper.

"You can tell Mr. Randolph that he has paid his bill and that he can take whichever way he chooses," returned the innkeeper.

When two members of the class of 1917 meet, the greeting, is "Hello, old man!" When two members of the class of 1877 meet, the salutation is, "Hello, old boy!"

W. B. Kirk, who with his family is enjoying an outing at Avalon, Catalina Island, is in the city, but will return to Catalina Saturday evening for the week-end and the holiday following.

Personals

Mrs. A. S. Chase and family, 1500 Riverdale drive, are enjoying an outing at Redondo Beach.

Chester Killgore and wife have moved from 411 Central to 1570 West Fifth, Ed Burlingham's house.

L. Woodhouse and family, who have been living at 1576 West Colorado for several months past, moved Thursday up on Pioneer drive.

Mrs. Le Roy W. Bosserman, 814 South Central avenue, returned Thursday evening from an extended visit in the East with relatives.

The Intermediate Department of the First Methodist Sunday School are holding a picnic Saturday afternoon at Brookside Park, Pasadena.

Mrs. Rebecca L. Lacy and Miss Jennie Lacy, 135 South Kenwood street, returned Wednesday from a delightful outing spent at Catalina Island.

Leon Owen, who had been with Kilborn's Grocery at Pacific and Vine for two or three years, went to Elizabeth Lake the first of the week to work for his father.

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Wiemers of 1524 Lorraine street, Casa Verdugo, entertained Kathleen and Arlene Campbell, daughters of Dr. Campbell of Los Angeles, at luncheon on Friday.

Mrs. Freda M. Gillett and three little daughters, who have been living at 612 West Seventh street for two or three years, will move back to Huntington Park, their former home, in a few days.

Miss Frances Payne will be violin soloist instead of Cecil Crandall, as announced on the program for the second open-air concert to be given Saturday evening at the band stand at the corner of Broadway and Louise street.

Miss Clara Midcalf returned Friday from Santa Monica, where she has been spending the summer. Miss Midcalf suffered from heat prostration during the hot wave in the spring, but her many friends will be glad to learn that she returns much benefited by her stay at the beach.

Mrs. Jennie Kelly and her two sons, of Bridger, Montana, have moved into the house at 1446 West Seventh street. Mr. Kelly, who is working in the oilfields in Montana, will join them here later. Mrs. Kelly was a girlhood friend of Mrs. Wm. Theobald, 1564 Oak street, away back in Hartford City, Ind.

One of the delighted spectators at the entertainment given by the children of Riverdale drive on Friday evening says that too much can not be said of the patriotic spirit shown on this occasion. The audience was roused to a height almost sublime by the patriotic utterances of these children. The recitation of "Old Glory" by Miss Doris Packer thrilled all hearts. She further hopes that her own neighborhood as well as others will follow the example of this patriotic band.

Dr. Jessie A. Russell will leave tomorrow for Sacramento to attend the State meeting of the California Council of Defense called by Governor Stephens for the 10th and 11th. Dr. Russell will also hold a conference with the officers of the Congress of Mothers and Parent-Teacher Associations in that city, returning in time Wednesday to preside at the conference of district presidents to be held in Los Angeles at 11 a. m., and the state executive board meeting to be held at 2 p. m. the same day.

GLENDALE LEAGUE FOR HOME BUSINESS AND BETTER BUSINESS

Believing it will benefit Glendale, the undersigned will patronize Glendale Business People so far as practicable, and give them the benefit of the doubt.

Name ..... Address ..... Business .....

It is gratifying to know that Glendalians are signing and cutting out this coupon and sending it to the Glendale Chamber of Commerce to have the names transferred to the large list, which now includes hundreds of names and is rapidly growing every day.

Patriotic people are calling at the Chamber of Commerce to get blanks to be signed up by themselves and others. It is realized that it is a vital proposition that there be more co-operation between Glendale buyers and Glendale sellers. That according to the nature and degree of such co-operation will be Glendale's prosperity. The following letter speaks for itself:

Glendale, Sept. 4, 1917.

Mr. Walt. Le Noir Church,
Secretary Glendale Chamber of Commerce, Glendale, Calif.

Dear Sir:

I noticed your article in the Glendale News regarding "Home business and better business." What does that mean? It means that every dollar spent here is a credit to the town. It also means that you can get a little better for a little less in your home town. For the simple reason that the merchant of Glendale has to meet less expense than the merchant in the large city. So the merchant with less expense can give you better merchandise for a little less and still a better profit to himself.

Home business is not only a better business, but it also helps increasing population. Trading at home means more working people; means more homes; more clerks for the grocery, butcher shop, drug store and so on, say nothing of the convenience and more confidence with your home merchant. The more patronizing home industry, the more help you need to create the products of necessity; the more help you get to increase your business, the more doctors you will need to help increase the population.

Home Business Is Best Business.

Sincerely yours,
SHERMAN, THE TAILOR,
1024 W. Broadway, Glendale, Calif.

RED CROSS NOTES

The establishment of a Hospital Supply Service under the Red Cross Commission in France, of which Major Grayson M.-P. Murphy is the head, was announced by the War Council of the American Red Cross to-day. An appropriation of $500,000 has been voted by the War Council to establish this service and provide its first stock of supplies.

This step marks the further centralization of relief activities in France under the Red Cross. How to co-ordinate all the military hospitals maintained by American and other foreign societies and individuals, and to provide them with the supplies and materials they needed at a minimum cost, was one of the first problems undertaken by Major Murphy on his arrival in Paris.

Several warehouses are now being established by the Red Cross Commission throughout France as a part of the new Hospital Supply Service. Here drugs, medicines and surgical instruments will be available for all hospitals in the department in which the warehouse is located. Orders can be filled promptly without even awaiting approval from Paris.

As Director of the new Hospital Supply Service, the War Council is sending to France, Stanley Field of Chicago, a son of the late Marshall Field. Assisting Mr. Field and in charge of the various warehouses, will be business or professional men volunteering their services for the period of the war. Five of these have already been selected and are now on their way to report to Major Murphy. These men are:

John Woodward of the Curtis Publishing Company, New York City; Todd T. Lewis, a broker, of Minneapolis, Minnesota; Kennard Windsor, a member of the Stock Exchange of Boston, Mass.; J. Sheldon Tilney of New York, and Russell Armstrong, also of New York.

As an operating force for these warehouses, Major Murphy has asked the Red Cross to recruit in the United States a force of five hundred men over military age. Men of experience in the building of warehouses and the handling of stores, are preferred.

What this Hospital Supply Service will mean in increasing the effectiveness of many of the war hospitals in France is shown in a message received from Major Harvey Cushing, in command of Red Cross Base Hospital No. 5, now in service behind the British lines in France.

"I cannot tell you how cheered I was," Major Cushing reported, "when I found how well organized the Red Cross was in Paris, and what a great start you had made.

"When an American officer could actually walk into the warehouse you had taken over and find Squibbs' and Mallinckrodt's ether, bathrobes, adhesive plaster, aspirin, surgical instruments, aspirating needles, and many other things which our camps happen to need, I for the first time began to realize what the Red Cross might be able to do for waifs like ourselves over here.

"It all goes to show what an enormously important part the Red Cross will undoubtedly come to play as more people come over and our affairs over sea get more and more complicated."

the whole equipment is the 350 H. P. motor required to drive the booster pump. At least it has been the cause of most concern. Having to be specially built, it was ordered nearly a year ago from the General Electric Company, of Schenectady, N. Y. Through this country becoming involved in war and the consequent delay at the factory caused by the precedence of war orders, combined with freight congestion, it has taken an almost constant stream of letters and telegrams to get it here. While very modest in appearance, it is a "Brute for Power." It is directly connected with the booster pump and is capable of pumping 3000 gals. of water per minute against a 320-ft head. Operates on 2200 volt current at a speed of 1500 revolutions per minute.

It may serve to illustrate the real importance and magnitude of this undertaking when you consider that it was necessary to lay 2½ miles of 20-inch cast iron pipe to this pumping plant (this same pipe if purchased to-day would cost several times what it did when purchased a year ago).

The water is pumped into the 20-inch line and goes direct into the system, the excess water going straight through to the reservoirs.

The development of this water and the completion of this pumping plant and pipe line has a direct bearing on the future of Glendale and is truly a work to be proud of. It means an ample assured supply of pure water for a number of years to come. It means that we can keep our lawns green and cultivate our vacant property without fear of a water shortage. We now have plenty of water to take us through any emergency or prolonged hot spell.

2200 volt power is used to operate this plant and was carried direct from the city's substation on Howard street to the booster pump station.

This entire plant will be very economical to operate and is designed so that additional wells and a second unit can be added whenever required.

This Sunday evening Mrs. Becker will speak on "The Sea" (Bible symbolism). Mrs. Carmack promises us something in the music line, so come prepared to hear something good.

The Sunday School will open again at ten o'clock as before with Miss Olive Williams, leader. By the way, the Sunday School picnic at Eagle Rock Park last Wednesday was most decidedly a pleasant affair. The well-filled tables, our happy boys and girls, and the Los Angeles friends and speakers made the day one long to be remembered.

FIRST METHODIST CHURCH

"A Twenty Million Army—and the Schools," will be the subject for the evening sermon at the First Methodist church. This will be a message fitted to the season. There will be fitting music by the choir. On account of there being no morning service all members of the church are urged to attend in the evening.

the toast, How It Seems to Be a Chinaman. Rev. McCrea's several years as a missionary worker in China caused him to be exceedingly well informed on the subject in hand.

A. T. Cowan responded to the toast, "In the Eyes of the World." The broadness of the subject permitted unlimited rambling and the speaker took advantage of conditions.

Mrs. Braly responded to the toast "What induced me to come to California." This lady's response was a masterpiece as a literary production and clearly set forth the beautiful stories written about California by those who have enjoyed her uniformity of climate and diversity of scenery. Mrs. Braly concluded her remarks by reading original lines in which all the departments of the local Red Cross workers shared in the honors.

Mrs. Mabel Franklin Ocker responded to the toast "Our Host and Hostess." In well-chosen words Mrs. Ocker emphasized the importnat part Mr. and Mrs. Braly had taken in local Red Cross work, and she, in behalf of the twelve hundred members, thanked the host and hostess for the many kind acts they had performed for this worthy cause.

In response to all that had been said Mr. Braly gave an interesting address, which was interspersed with witty stories and considerable valuable counsel.

Mr. Braly was not the only story teller. The toastmistress set the example and other speakers followed, eahc trying to outdo the other. Even Mr. Vesper was persuaded to enter the contest and came through with flying colors. Dr. Chase and Dr. Mills each entertained those present with stories which would do credit to the best ever found within the covers of an Ayer's Almanac.

However, Mrs. White said the whole bunch could be found in recent numbers of the Ladies Home Journal, but as each story had reference to the personal experiences of the one telling it, that could not have been the case.

Words cannot describe the harmony, pleasantry and optimistic expression that prevailed throughout the three hours spent in this social circle. Mrs. White led in singing "He is a jolly good fellow" with all standing, waiving handkerchiefs, and with this the merrymakers hastened to bid the host and hostess good night.

The Officer (to the new sentry): If you saw an armed party approaching, what would you do?

The Sentry: Turn out the guard, sir.

The Officer (facetiously): Right; and if you saw a battleship coming across the road what would you do then?

The Sentry: Report to the 'orspital, sir, for medical examination.

LESSON IN MANNERS

The lady was entertaining callers, when the company was startled by a noise like a load of coal being delivered simultaneously. It proved to be nothing but the small daughter of the hostess, who had hurried down stairs in this noisy fashion. The mother was amazed.

"Alice," she said severely, "you go back up stairs and see if you can't come down like a lady."

Alice went slowly up the steps. The guests listened involuntarily, but not a sound accompanied the child's descent. She appeared among them as noiselessly as a falling rose leaf.

"That was much better, "approved her mother. "You see you can come down stairs in a ladylike manner when you try."

"Yessum," said Alice. "I slid down the banister this time."—Cleveland Plaindealer.

OUR COUNTRY

"And for your country, boy, and for that Flag, never dream a dream but of serving her as she bids you, even though the service carry you through a thousand hells. No matter what happens to you, no matter who flatters you or abuses you, never look at another flag, never let a night pass but you pray God to bless that flag. Remember, boy, that behind officers and government, and people even, there is the Country Herself, your Country, and that you belong to Her as you belong to your own mother. Stand by her, boy, as you would stand by your mother."—Edward E. Hale.
